Prices that will make merchandise move. There's real worth in offerings like these for hard cash.

Does Money-Making Interest You?

If it does, investigate. Here are honest goods, full value, with even an honest profit frozen out of them.

DOES IT PAY TO SELL GOODS WITHOUT PROFIT?

Yes, it does when we are going to move. Don't want to handle a dollar's worth more than possible.

WE LOOSE, YOU GAIN.

Visit us at once and we guarantee our prices below any baited prices than may be given you. Truly,

"Every Path Hath a Puddle."

The puddle in the pathway of most lives is a defective circulation due to a blood supply that instead of growing clear and strong like a mountain brook, is stagnant and impure. Puddles may be purified, however, and become limpid streams. That is what Hood's Sarsaparilla does with human blood.

It clarifies, purifies and strengthens the blood, and when this is accomplished, the vital organs, liver, lungs, kidneys, bowels, are all braced and invigorated. It never disappoints.

Dyspepsia—suffered everything but death for years with dyspepsia. Nothing relieved me until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made and kept me well. Can eat anything I wish. Mrs. EUGENE MAYER, Houli Mill, Danbury, Conn.

Impure Blood—"Five years I suffered with pimples on face and body. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me permanently. It also cured my father's eruptions." ALBERT E. CHASE, Tustin City, Cal.

Erysipelas—"My little girl is now fat and healthy on account of Hood's Sarsaparilla, curing her of erysipelas and eczema. It is our family medicine, as we all take it." Mrs. H. O. WILSON, Port Chester, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints

Mrs. Polly Westerfield, whom the grand jury indicted for complicity in the murder of Frank Burke, near Madisonville, sometime ago, was lodged in jail here Sunday by Deputy Sheriff D. M. Hocker. Mrs. Westerfield is the mother of Foster Gross, who is in jail here, charged as principal in the Burke murder.

It is this manner of conduct continues the courts will be a mockery and justice will have flown to brutish beasts. Blind tigers may spring up in every village and hamlet cast their venom and defy the courts. The vile hand of the murderer may while the blood of innocent men, while justice must grope in the darkness.

This is indeed a sad state of affairs. It is not a mere statement, but a fact acknowledged by all and declared from the bench by our venerable Judge. Who is responsible for this great calamity? Every man who, in exercising the inherent right of suffrage cast his vote for J. Edwin Rowe. Who should be blamed? They, not he. Previous to his re-election he had given the people of this Judicial District a three years object-lesson, and having ignored that warning, the result is inevitable.

Twelve prisoners are behind the bars of the Ohio County Jail, each of whom is charged with a felony. Four of these are charged with murder—with the foulest murders ever committed in Ohio county. Of those who are held to answer a charge of taking human life, one is a negro, two are white men and the fourth is a white woman. Two other men, who have taken human lives, are out on bond. Add to this a half dozen towns in this—a prohibition county—where whisky is sold as freely as groceries, while the grand jury is sitting and you have a picture of which the good citizens of Ohio county are deeply ashamed.

LITERARY AND SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Hartford Girls Club met last Saturday afternoon with Miss Mary Keown. The program was nicely carried out and much fun was enjoyed after the literary work. They meet to-morrow afternoon with Miss Annie Patton. All the members are requested to attend as they elect officers.

The Woman's Club had a most pleasant meeting with their President Miss Maggie Nail last Saturday afternoon. Much interest was manifested. It is the most earnest of all such member be present to-morrow afternoon at Mrs. J. R. Pirtle.

The Entre Nous are anticipating a most pleasant meeting with Miss Iler this evening. Tacky costumes will be a defensible feature. The program we think will almost be ridiculous rendered. A full description will be given in next issue.

Stewart & Leach at Beaver Dam will take your Produce of all kinds: Butter, eggs, chickens, feathers, &c. in exchange for anything in the Dry goods line. Try them. They are first-class merchants.

Without a Commonwealth's Attorney.

While making the order for the return of Cicero King, the murderer of Marshal Sam Casheir, from the Louisville jail to Ohio county for trial, Judge Owen made this significant statement: "The court finds itself in a most precarious position. On the heel of the criminal docket, with three of the most important murder cases such as were ever on the criminal docket of the Ohio Circuit Court, we are at present without a Commonwealth's attorney. The Court and the County Attorney will have to do the best they can, and when the proper time comes I will appoint an attorney to assist in protecting the interest of the Commonwealth."

BEAVER DAM, KY.

March 15—Owing to sickness, we have been unable to furnish you the news from this place for several weeks, we are quite glad indeed to furnish you the happenings of this busy little town.

Uncle Charlie Stevens, who has been dangerously ill for the past three weeks, is thought by his Doctor and nurse to be recovering as rapidly as could be expected of one of his age.

Mr. S. W. Leach, of Hickory Grove neighborhood, has been nursing him for the past two weeks, by the way, he is said to be quite a good nurse.

Since our last, death has visited our town twice, and claimed on Sunday the person of Mr. Jim Sam Bennett.

Mr. Bennett had been suffering several days from a very severe attack of lagrippe. He was buried Monday evening in the No Creek burying ground. He leaves a wife, a large family of children and many friends to mourn his departure. On Monday morning our town was made sad at hearing of the death of Mrs. Deliah Taylor, wife of Mr. Sam P. Taylor.

Ant Deliah, as she was commonly called, had been a sufferer for a long while of a paralytic trouble. She was buried at Liberty. She leaves a husband, one daughter and a host of friends to mourn her departure.

Mr. H. Stevens, who has been quite sick for three or four weeks, is much improved at this writing.

Since our last letter to your paper, we have had a change in office man at the depot. Our old friend, Col. W. Fred Long, is now holding the keys down at this place. He had charge of the office several years ago. Our business people were glad to welcome him back here. We have never had a more obliging agent here than Col. Long.

Mr. Bud Chinn and family have moved to his farm.

Mrs. Ellen Maddox and daughter, Jennie, Owensboro, visited relatives in Beaver Dam first of this week.

Miss Nola Iler and Mrs. A. E. Pate, Hartford, visited friends here for several days past.

Miss Laura Norris, of Owensboro, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Georgia Coats, at this writing.

Mrs. Tom Johnson, Sulphur Springs, is visiting her children, who are attending school at this place.

Mrs. Claude Maddox, of McHenry, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stewart, of this place, first of the week.

Messrs. J. B. and D. F. Gann have moved their shoe shop to Princeton.

Gray & Co. shipped a car load of hogs Tuesday.

Mr. Sam Galus, of Fordville, was in town a few hours yesterday.

Mr. Noble, of the U. S. Insurance Co., has been in town several days.

COLONIAL NOTES.

Mr. O. V. Wilson, an old student of this school, who is teaching quite a successful school at Elmwood, near McHenry, was in town Saturday mixing with old friends.

Miss Bettie Felix, of Olanton, who was here in school last year, spent a few days in town this week.

Miss Stella Field spent Sunday with friends at Arnold.
